

All the faculties have conducted online classes through various applications like Zoom, Impartus, and Google meet or made their video lecture and shared with their students. Project second phase demo was conducted on 18th and 19th May for the final year students through Google meet. I and II internal Assessment has been successfully conducted through Google classroom. Faculties have evaluated their student answer script and marks have been communicated to the students through Google classroom. Faculties have been following up with the student progress by counseling through phone calls. All the faculties have attended the various webinars in the field of virtual labs, Intellectual Property, Research, Artificial Intelligence, Machine learning etc. Some of the faculties have attended FDPs and workshop in the field of Machine learning, Online teaching, Research etc.

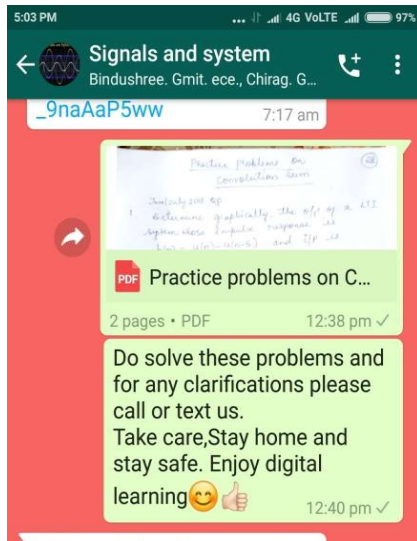

Fig 1: Screenshot of Video lecture

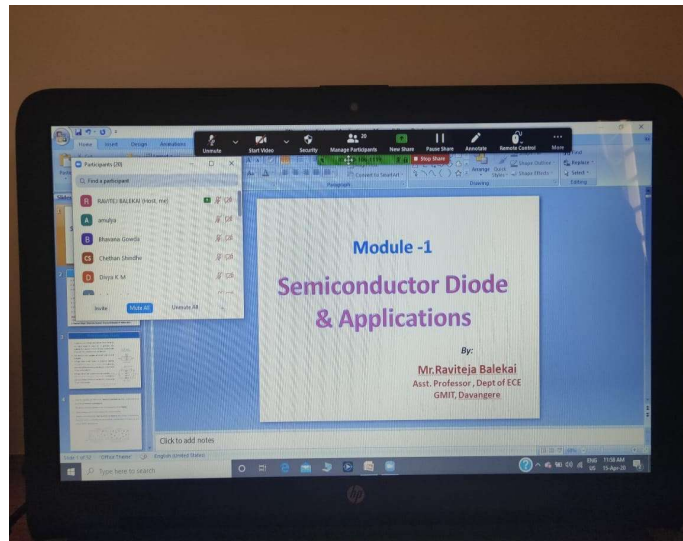

Fig 2: Screenshot of online class

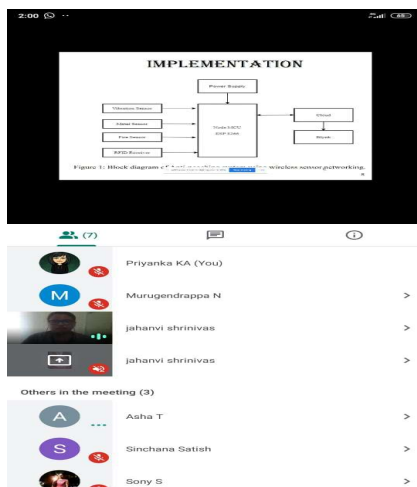

Fig 3 : Screenshots of Project II phase

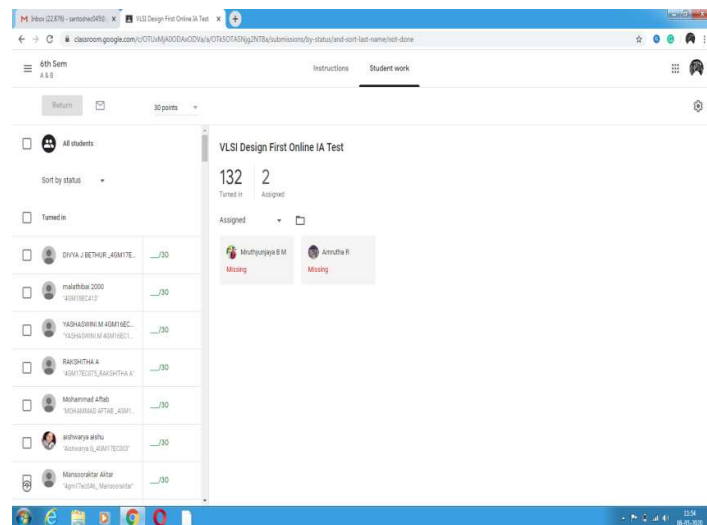

Fig 4 : Screenshots of I internal assessment